JAPAN SENDS IN PROTEST

(Associated Press Cable)

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The formal protest of Japan against the enactment of the California anti-alien land law was presented to Secretary of State Bryan today by Ambassador Viscount Chinda. The protest was immediately communicated to the President, who has called a meeting of his cabinet for tomorrow to consider the whole question involved.
Heard the report to be made by the secretary of state and draft a reply to Japan's note.It is expected that the reply will be purely formal in its nature and will assure Japan that the federal government is prepared to guard any of the rights of Japanese subjects in America guaranteed by treaty.

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

California's anti-alien land bill will not menace America's peace.Japan has accepted president Wilson's action in sending Secretary of State Bryan to Sacramento in the spirit wherein the move was made.
Japan resents California's action, but does not believe the American people will endorse the Webb bill. It also does not expect the measure to be enforced.Bryan Reports.
Secretary of State Bryan reported personally to President Wilson today on his California trip. He told the president that a majority of the California legislators believed that an anti-alien land bill had to be passed.
Some Action Must Be Taken.Bryan also told the President that a situation exists in California which must be met and that Asiatic aggression in certain communities must be checked.It is understood that Japan is willing to concede nearly everything demanded through a treaty which would preserve national honor.Confession that she looked calmly on while her sweetheart and another man strangled her husband, was made in Pittsburgh, Pa., today by the wife of Valerio Fantozzo, a gardener, whose body was found in his house. Mrs.
Fantozzo said the crime was committed while Fantozzo slept and that "he never knew what killed him."The eight suspended San Francisco policemen, accused of collusion with Italian huncmen, will not be brought to trial before the police commission until after their trial in the superior court on grand jury indictments.The breakdown in the London courtroom of "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond from weakness today caused a halt in the trial here of millitant suffragettes, charged with disturbance of the peace. The proceedings were continued to May 13.All of the suffragettes, except Edward Clayton, known as the "male" suffragette, were released on $5,000 bail. None of the women has eaten food since her arrest and the effect of fasting was noticed when the case was called. Mrs. Drummond collapsed and Miss Kenney and Miss Kemp were so weak they could hardly stand.It was estimated today that damage exceeding $5,000,000 has been done by suffragettes since the government recalled the franchise reform bill during the last parliament.A new biplane record was established today when Aviator Frangeers, carrying six passengers, remained aloft at an altitude of 2300 feet for more than an hour.The preliminary hearing of Mrs.
Josie Rosenberg, proprietor of the Jongquil apartments, who is charged with contributing to the delinquency of two girls, was postponed today until Monday. Denunciations to the indictments in which she is accused were filed by her attorneys. Mrs. Rosenberg was indicted by the grand jury that accused George E. Bixby of Long Beach of similar offenses.Two aviators are under arrest and their aeroplanes confiscated following their capture at a ranch thirty miles south of Tucson. United States Marshal Johnson, who made the arrests, believes that they intended an aerial attack on the City of Guaymas, Sonora, upon which Sonora Constitutionalists are advancing. The men gave their names as Masson and Smith.Labor leaders and representatives of farmers' organizations of the country are jubilant over the action of congress in exempting labor unions and farmers' organizations from trust prosecution under the terms of the Sundry Civil Bill. The exemption was upheld in the senate by a vote of 41 to 32.A Mexican troop train bearing two hundred and fifty soldiers was destroyed with dynamite and most of the passengers killed, said an official state report received in Nogales today. The disaster occurred near the Sonora state line.Following the explosion, fragments of soldiers' bodies littered the tracks.
Fire broke out among the wreckage and, in spite of frenzied efforts of the survivors, scores of wounded men were incinerated in the flames. The Federalists were on the way from San Blas to Alamos when intercepted by the insurgents, who had planted mines along the tracks.
